FY2013

City Arts Projects

Program Guidelines

Organizations may request up to $30,000

Deadline: Friday, June 8, 2012 by 6:00 PM

Applicants may submit two City Arts Projects applications per fiscal year

City Arts Projects Description

The City Arts Projects (CAP) grant provides support for large-scale projects (including festivals) to promote arts and humanities activities to a diverse range of communities in the District of Columbia.

The requested activities must have a total project budget of $100,000 or more. Organizations with project budgets that are less than $100,000 are recommended to apply for funding through the Community Arts Grant (CAG).

City Arts Projects funding is distributed in two categories: City Arts Projects and Festivals. Eligible activities include, but are not limited to: concerts, visual arts exhibitions, literary readings, and festivals that focus on dance, folk art, film, music, theater or other art forms.

- If requested activities have a primary focus involving children and youth, the applicant must request funds through the Arts Education Program;
- If requested activities have a primary focus involving public art installations, the applicant must request funds through the Public Art Building Communities program;
- Applicants with questions about either of these requirements are strongly encouraged to consult with a DCCA staff member prior to applying to discuss the proper application category for the request.

City Arts Projects has a 1:1 cash matching requirement, designed to assist an organization's fundraising by leveraging funding from additional sources. Neither in-kind services nor other DCCA funds may be used to satisfy the matching requirement. Funds must be spent within DCCA's FY2013 (October 1, 2012 to September 30, 2013).

City Arts Projects Goals

- Provide access to high-quality arts and humanities experiences for all District of Columbia residents;
- Increase quality of life by supporting a vibrant community identity through the arts and humanities; and
- Stimulate the creative economy through investments in local artists and arts organizations.

DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities

Eligibility Requirements

Organizations may apply if they meet all of the following eligibility requirements at the time of application:

- Incorporated as a nonprofit, with a designated tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, as well as in the District of Columbia;
- Principal offices are located in the District of Columbia, as demonstrated by the address on the organization's official 990 document. PO Boxes may not be used as a primary business address. Please do not use the address of a board member or volunteer;
- A demonstrated commitment to provide arts and humanities to the residents of Washington, DC. At least fifty-one percent (51%) of scheduled arts activities occur within the District of Columbia;
- Applicants must be in good standing with DCCAH. Applicants with incomplete or delinquent reports, in any funding program, as of October 15, 2012, are ineligible to receive an additional award from DCCAH in FY2013;
- Fiscal agents are prohibited; and
- Colleges, universities, service organizations, foreign governments or other DC government agencies, including DC Public Schools, are prohibited from applying for any DCCAH grants.

For Festivals requests, applicants must also meet the following eligibility requirements:

- A minimum of 1,000 people must benefit from the festival;
- Artistic programming must comprise a minimum of six (6) hours of the festival;
- Festival events and programs must be publicly advertised and open to the general public;
- The festival may not be a block party, fundraiser or charity benefit;
- Funding may be used for project expenses only, which includes support for salaries and operations directly related to the festival events and programs. Funding may not be used for food, beverages, capital costs, building renovations/improvements, cash prizes, gifts, security, items for sale (for example, t-shirts and posters) or any operational costs associated with the administrative office (such as staff salaries, office rent and utilities, office equipment, office supplies, etc.); and
- All festival activities must comply with District of Columbia permits, policies and safety requirements. Be sure to include these items in the project budget, where applicable.

Individuals are not eligible to apply to City Arts Projects. DCCAH recommends that individuals apply to the Community Arts Grant (CAG) or Artist Fellowship Program (AFP).

DC Cultural Data Project (DC CDP)

Beginning in 2012, DCCAH will require Grants-In-Aid, Arts Education Program, UPSTART, Cultural Facilities Projects and City Arts Projects applicants to complete the DC Cultural Data Project (DC CDP) Data Profile.

The DC CDP is a District-wide, collaborative effort of public and private funders and consists of an online system for collecting and standardizing historical, financial and organizational data. The DC CDP will provide the cultural community with comprehensive data on arts and culture in DC, and enable organizations to view trends in their data, benchmark themselves against peer organizations, and enhance their financial management capacity.

The DC CDP Data Profile is an annual requirement completed through the CDP website www.DCculturaldata.org. The information entered into the Data Profile will be used to generate application and report materials for the DCCA and other funders.

Complete instructions for getting started with the DC CDP are available here: <http://www.DCculturaldata.org/orientation.aspx>. Further instructions on how to use the DC Cultural Data Project are below.

Instructions for the use of the DC CDP:

1. Go to www.DCculturaldata.org and click on “New User Registration.”
2. Create new Data Profile. Complete a Data Profile for each of the TWO most recently completed fiscal years; start with the earliest year.
3. Enter data using your board-approved financial audit/review or year-end financial statements.
 - a. If your organization is not audited/reviewed, enter data based on board-approved year-end financial statements.
 - b. If your organization is an arts program/department within a larger institution, enter data based on internal financial statements of the arts program/department and indicate that you have a parent organization in Section 1.
 - c. DO NOT enter project budgets, budgets for future years, or data from incomplete or not-yet-approved audits/reviews/financial statements.
4. When finished entering data, click on Submit/Error Check; address any errors and call the Help Desk if you have questions.
5. On My CDP, go to the Funders Reports section, select the fiscal year for the report and click on “GO.” Click on the link for the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities to generate the report and print.
6. Review your Funder Report; if you need to make changes, call the Help Desk.
7. Attach the Funder Report along with your DCCA application materials.

Please Note: As part of the effort to ensure the accuracy of your data, throughout the year the DC CDP Help Desk will review each of your submitted Data Profile(s) and contact you with suggested revisions. It is your responsibility to respond to the Help Desk and to make any necessary changes to the submitted Cultural Data Profile(s). This process will not interfere with your ability to run Funder Reports and apply for grants.

Online training is also available here: <http://www.DCculturaldata.org/training.aspx>.

DCCAH Application Process

DCCAH utilizes an online grant application website called Zoom Grants. All applicants MUST SUBMIT the application online via Zoom Grants by 6:00PM on the deadline date. DCCAH will not accept mailed, emailed or hand-delivered copies of grant applications. Late applications will not be accepted.

Grant Application Procedure

1. Download the Classification Sheet on the DCCAH website. For each of the five (5) classification categories, select one classification that best describes the applicant and the grant request(s):
 - a) Institution Type;
 - b) Applicant Discipline;
 - c) Project Discipline;
 - d) Artist Type;
 - e) and Type of Activity.
2. Review the FY13 Guide to Grants and the grant guidelines thoroughly and determine eligibility of the applicant, project and project activities;
3. Go to the Apply for Grants page and register with Zoom Grants, DCCAH's online grant application website. Zoom Grants provides a step-by-step tutorial on how to submit the application here;
4. Once fully registered, select the desired grant program(s) and complete the application questions and budget/budget narrative data;
5. Upload all required documents and supplementary material;
6. Upload the required work sample. Please note that work samples must speak to the artistic content of the applicant as it relates to the grant request;
7. Submit the application by 6:00pm on the grant program's deadline date;

For technical assistance, contact Zoom Grants toll free at 866-323-5404.

The application process is competitive and subject to the availability of funds. Applicants may not request or receive funding for the same project activities through more than one Commission grant program or grant category.

DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities

Applicants are fully responsible for the content of their application packages. An automated confirmation of an application's submission does not guarantee an application's eligibility nor recommendation for funding by the Advisory Review Panel. DCCAH staff cannot make corrections to applications on behalf of applicants nor can Zoom Grants' staff. DCCAH staff will review applications for completeness and contact applicants for any missing documents within 5 business days of the deadline. Applicants are responsible for adding missing documents within 5 business days of DCCAH's notification. Incomplete applications may not be forwarded to the Advisory Review Panel for review.

Technical Assistance and Workshops

DCCAH staff members are available to help develop grant applications through group and individual technical assistance. Between May and June 2012, the DCCAH will conduct free workshops for participants to learn useful information about the agency's funding opportunities and how to submit a successful grant application. More information about the dates and times of these workshops can be found on our website (www.dcartarts.dc.gov) under Grant Writing Assistance. In addition, DCCAH staff members are available for individual, pre-scheduled 30-minute appointments, up to one week before the deadline. Contact information for the DCCAH staff members is available at www.dcartarts.dc.gov under Who We Are – DCCAH Staff.

City Arts Projects workshops will take place at the offices of the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities. Workshop dates, times and locations listed below are subject to change.

Friday, May 11th from 1:00 – 2:30 PM
DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities
1371 Harvard St. NW
Washington, DC 20009

Monday, May 21st from 6:00 – 7:30 PM
DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities
1371 Harvard St. NW
Washington, DC 20009

Review Process

All applications are scored according to four categories: Artistic Content, Community Impact and Engagement, Sustainability and Capacity, and Overall. These evaluation criteria are specific to each grant program and explained on page 8. A volunteer Advisory Review Panel is comprised of arts and humanities professionals independent of the DCCAH. The panel scores applications using the criteria and makes funding recommendations to the Commission Board. The Commission Board reviews panel recommendations and makes all final funding determinations. Funding decisions are not determined by DCCAH staff.

DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities

For more information regarding the grant review process please visit the Guide to Grants. To nominate a person(s) to serve on DCCAH Advisory Review Panels, complete an Advisory Panelist Nomination form and submit it by June 1, 2012.

The evaluation process will also take into consideration general standards of decency and respect for the diverse beliefs and values of the American public consistent with The National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities Act, as amended in 1990.

Funding Restrictions

As a District of Columbia agency, the DCCAH must ensure that all grant funds are expended in a fiscally responsible manner. Allowable costs are those that District government and the DCCAH have determined as valid expenditures.

Examples of allowable costs for City Arts Projects:

- Salaries;
- Artistic Expenses;
- Overhead and maintenance;
- Materials, supplies and pieces of equipment under $500;
- Consultants; and
- Travel directly related to the cost of producing arts programming in the District of Columbia.

Examples of unallowable costs for City Arts Projects:

- Food and beverages;
- Operating Reserves;
- Tuition and scholarships;
- Costs related to fundraisers and special events;
- Pieces of equipment over $500;
- Travel not directly related to the execution of the project; and
- College tuition or to fund universities, service organizations, foreign governments, or DC government agencies, including DC Public Schools.

All expenses must be approved by the grant program manager before the grant agreement is processed for payment.

Individuals are not restricted from receiving funds from multiple grant programs. However, organizations cannot receive more than 2 grant awards through the Arts Education Program, City Arts Projects; and Grants-in-Aid, but may apply to all. An applicant is not restricted from receiving additional grant awards from any other grant program(s).

Please refer to the Guide to Grants for detailed information regarding funding restrictions.

Notification and Payment

DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities

Applicants will be notified in writing of their application status after October 1, 2012. This notification may consist of a grant package, letter of ineligibility, or letter of denial. More information about grant notification may be found in the FY2013 Guide to Grants.

Please note that the date of payment disbursement is subject to change depending on the availability of funds. The date eligible for payment does not ensure the date of payment; it provides a general timeframe. DCCAH works with other DC government agencies to pay grant recipients in a timely manner but DCCAH does not create or distribute payments onsite. To expedite the payment process, DCCAH strongly recommends FY13 grant recipients register for direct deposit. For more information on direct deposit, visit Manage Grant Award on our website.

DCCAH reserves the right to rescind any and all grant awards for non-compliance with grant guidelines, policies and regulations. FY2012 grantees with unfulfilled reporting, in any funding program, as of October 15, 2012, are ineligible to receive any additional awards from DCCAH.

Risk Management and Performance Monitoring

All grant recipients are subject to risk assessments and monitoring requirements as outlined in the City-Wide Grants Manual and Sourcebook from the Office of the City Administrator (OCA). OCA requires the DCCAH to establish standards for grantees in making determinations of demonstrated performance prior to the award of all grants.

All activities funded by DCCAH will be monitored and evaluated by staff to assure compliance with all aspects of the District of Columbia's requirements, which may include evaluating allowable costs, meeting project benchmarks, providing proof of expenditures, etc.

All FY13 grant recipients must complete final reports by October 15, 2013. Grantees are required to document payment of all expenses paid by grant funds as well as the required match. Interim and final report forms are available online through the Manage Grant Award link on the DCCAH's website. All grantees are responsible for reporting grant awards as income on federal and local tax returns and are strongly encouraged to consult with the tax professionals and the IRS.

Contact Information

For more information regarding DCCAH's grant programs, or clarification about accessibility requirements, work sample submissions and the grant making process, please refer to the Guide to Grants. Additional questions about City Arts Projects can be referred to Steven Mazzola, Grant Program Manager at steven.mazzola@dc.gov or 202-724-5613.
