The mission of the D.C. Department of Human Resources (DCHR) is to strengthen individual and organizational performance and enable the District government to attract, develop, and retain a highly qualified, diverse workforce.

Summary of Services

DCHR offers executive management to District government officials and agencies by providing personnel-related services to help each agency meet daily mission mandates. Specific services provided include position classification and recruitment services, the interpretation of personnel-related policy, as well as oversight control (such as the adherence to regulatory requirements) for effective recruitment and staffing, strategic and financial restructuring through realignment assistance, and resource management. In addition, the agency provides District government employees with a variety of services, including employee benefits and compensation guidance, performance management, compliance, audit assessments, legal guidance on personnel matters, and learning and development.

Division Description

The D.C. Department of Human Resources operates through the following 6 divisions:

Benefits and Retirement Services – is responsible for the service delivery of the District’s benefits program and policies for 32,000 benefit-eligible employees and retirees (pre- and post-October 1, 1987). This includes the plan management, contracting, and communication for all health, voluntary, and retirement programs. In addition, the Benefits and Retirement Services oversees the Police and Firefighters’ Retirement and Relief Board, which makes determinations and decisions on all retirement and survivor benefit claims and cases.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Benefits Operations – provides benefits services that strengthen individuals and organizational performance and assists in enabling the District government to attract, develop, and retain a well-qualified, diverse workforce through the service delivery of the District’s benefits programs to all eligible employees and retirees; and
- Police and Fire Retirement Services – provides oversight and support for the Police and Firefighters Retirement Relief Board (PFRRB). The PFRRB hears and rules on optional, disability, and survivor cases pertaining to sworn personnel of the Metropolitan Police Department, Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department, U.S. Park Police, and U.S. Secret Service.

Human Resource Services – provides recruitment, position management, and classification assistance to the District of Columbia government. HRS establishes official classification descriptions, designs and develops classifications, and develops recruitment management policies, procedures, and regulations. HRS delivers expert advice to District government agencies in the areas of classification and classification policies, Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), and recruitment and retention issues. HRS provides assistance to HR Advisors; provides staffing and recruitment support to subordinate agencies delegated recruitment and selection authority, as well as other subordinate and independent agencies; and conducts recruitment.

This division contains the following 4 activities:

- Analytical Services – provides data to support recruitment and classification strategies for the District, and evaluates reports and data to assist with data-driven decisions for HR solutions.
- Classification Services – provides position management and classification support services to District government agencies; provides management and guidance of realignments, reorganizations, and reductions in force; establishes official classifications and descriptions; and develops classification policies, procedures, and regulations; and
- Recruiting and Staffing Services – provides recruitment, selection, and placement services to client agencies and oversight control for effective and staffing, and provides auditing of subordinate agencies delegated recruitment

Learning and Development Services – provides training, workforce planning, and organizational development programs and activities that increase the knowledge, skills, and competencies of District government employees, to enable them to provide the highest quality and most cost-effective services to the District of Columbia.

This division contains the following 3 activities:

- Capital City Fellows Administration – provides central oversight for this two-year training program for recent graduates of master's degree programs in public administration, public policy, urban planning, and related fields while working for the District government;
- Special Program and Services – designed to increase the capacity of District employees and the residents DCHR serves. Programs include Executive Leadership program, Certified Public Management program, Thriving in the Workplace program, District Leadership program, L.E.A.P. program, and Residents Services Program; and
- Training Services – provides training and a professional forum for implementing consortiums and programs that increase knowledge, skills, and competencies of District government employees;

Policy and Compliance Services – designs, implements and oversees unified personnel standards to support a safe, effective and best-in-class work environment. The Administration carries out its mission by collaborating with District agencies to develop modern and useful personnel practices, assisting agencies and employees to achieve success through amicable conflict resolution, and auditing and monitoring personnel standards and practices to achieve strategic personnel goals.

This division contains the following 2 activities:

- Compliance Review Services – audits and monitors employee suitability and agency adherence to federal and District laws, regulations and policies to support the District's strategic staffing objections. This includes, among other things, ensuring compliance with criminal and drug screening requirements and residency requirements, as well as professional licensing verification; and
- Policy Review Services – implements the provisions of the Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act by developing modern and usable personnel tools to ensure a work environment to support superior public service.

Strategic Human Capital Services – provides oversight and full life cycle management of the strategic human capital planning process. This includes developing organizational strategies, translating strategy into effective and actionable initiatives, analyzing results and workforce data, reporting on achievements, and providing solutions based on results. The division's activities include benchmarking, researching best practices, and completing business process improvement initiatives. Evaluation processes will monitor for targeted success and ongoing results. Reports and recommendations will be developed to enhance processes and ensure achievement of targeted human capital goals in support of District priorities.

Agency Management – provides for administrative support and the required tools to achieve operational and programmatic results. This division is standard for all agencies using performance-based budgeting.
